

Affiliate Garden Benefits

A significant part of Urban Harvest's mission is to support community gardens in the greater Houston area that help improve their communities. These gardens serve many purposes in addition to fostering friendships and building community spirit, including: combatting urban blight, alleviating hunger, classroom education, and therapeutic services.

Some of the benefits of becoming an affiliated garden include:

- Individual and group volunteer referrals;
- Complimentary spots in our gardening classes;
- Listing in our online directory of gardens;
- Media referrals;
- Gardening advice;
- Access to the Urban Harvest free seed bank;
- Access to free plants, materials and education at HUB Garden distribution events;
- Discounts on gardening supplies from the following local retail locations:
 - Nature's Way Resources
 - Quality Feed & Garden, Inc.
 - RCW Nurseries
- Annual subscription to our quarterly planting guide;
- Ability to post on our Community Gardens Facebook group.

How to Become an Affiliate Community Garden

1. Fill out our garden questionnaire on the affiliate benefits page of www.urbanharvest.org or request a copy from info@urbanharvest.org
2. Schedule a garden visit with Urban Harvest
3. Purchase an Urban Harvest Affiliate Community Garden sign for your garden (a $50 one-time fee).
